

ENTERTAINMENT BILLBOARD

THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 2004 THE JERUSALEM POST

WHAT'S ON

Lang Lang with the IPO

The young Chinese pianist appears for the first time with the Philharmonic in Rachmaninov's "Piano Concerto No. 3," as part of a program that also includes Sibelius' Symphony No. 7 and Debussy's "Afternoon of a Fawn." Thursday and Saturday, Mann Auditorium, 1-700-70-30-30.

Thursday

CHILDREN

JERUSALEM

Near the High Commissioner Children encounter stories and games from the British Mandate period in the first of a series of summer Thursday afternoon events at the Sherover Promenade. At 5 p.m., free.

MUSIC

JERUSALEM

Spanish & Portuguese liturgical works

Tenor Daniel Halfon, cellist Sharona Greenstein, and the Shirat Israel Choir perform pieces by Bruch ("Kol Nidrei"), Mendes, Mesquita, De Sola, Saqui and others. At 7:45 p.m., Yad HaRav Nissim, 44 Jabotinsky Street, corner of Molcho, 054 546-1627.

NETANYA

Stomping Dixie

Melodic jazz in the Louis Armstrong tradition is played by the Dixieland Jazz Band, led by Stan Ross on trumpet. At 8 p.m., AACI, Rehov Shmuel Hnatziv 28, (09) 833-0950.

RA'ANANA

Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

A host of settings for Psalm 122 are sung by tenors Hezy Levy, Father Yazzed Said, and soprano Miriam Meltzer accompanied by Phoenix, the Israel Consort of Viols. At 8:30 p.m., Performing Arts Center, Rehov Hashomer.

DUAL LOYALTY

Habayta (Home), Adina Feldman's new show of Broadway numbers, Hebrew tunes, and her own original Hebrew and English songs, reflects her sense of belonging in – and sometimes not belonging in – both Israel and America. Accompanied on the piano by her musical director, Paul Salter and drummer/ percussionist, Abe (Riverdance) Doron. Saturday at 9 p.m., Bible Lands Museum, (02) 561-1066 (tickets include wine and cheese at 8:30 p.m.).

THEATER

TEL AVIV

The Dee Dee & Hans Show
Cabaret diva Dee Dee looks back at 30 years of show biz, and affairs with stars Mick Jagger, Warren Beatty and – secretly, of course – John F. Kennedy, in her "first-ever Israeli performance" of rock pop standards, with current paramour, Hans. Tonight, Amit Tur and Adam Peri host real-life Israeli rock diva, Hadara Areddy-Levin in their English-speaking show. At 10:30 p.m., Tmuna Theater, Rehov Soncino 8, (03) 562-9462, NIS 55.

Friday

FUN

JERUSALEM

Call 'em

The Emerald traditional Irish band performs, followed by square dancing, as part of the school fair – open to the public. At 4 p.m., Adam School, Rehov Emek Harefa'im Street,

Saturday

MUSIC

JERUSALEM

Lyric ethnic

WHAT'S ON

MUSIC

JERUSALEM

Spanish & Portuguese liturgical

Daniel Halfon, cellist Naama Greenstein, and the Israel Choir perform pieces
 such as "Kol Nidrei", Mendelssohn, Debussy, De Sola, Saqui and others. At 7:45 p.m., Yad HaRav Yehonatan, 44 Jabotinsky Street, corner of Yehonatan St., Tel Aviv. Tel: 054 546-1627.

NETANYAHU

Playing Dixie
 Dixie jazz in the Louisiana style. The band's strong tradition is played by the Jerusalem Jazz Band, led by Yehonatan Hatziv. At 8 p.m., Rehov Shmuel Hnatziv 28,
 Tel Aviv. Tel: 03-0950.

NETANYAHU

For the Peace of Jerusalem
 A series of settings for Psalm 122
 sung by tenors Hezy Levy, Yazed Said, and soprano Naama Meltzer accompanied by the Israel Consort of vocalists. At 8:30 p.m., Performing Arts Center, Rehov Hashomer.

DUAL LOYALTY

Habayta (Home), Adina Feldman's new show of Broadway numbers, Hebrew tunes, and her own original Hebrew and English songs, reflects her sense of belonging in
 – and sometimes not belonging in – both Israel and America.
 Accompanied on the piano by her musical director, Paul Salter
 and drummer/percussionist, Abe (Riverdance) Doron. Saturday
 at 9 p.m., Bible Lands Museum,
 (02) 561-1066 (tickets include wine and cheese at 8:30 p.m.).

THEATER

TEL AVIV

The Dee Dee & Hans Show
 Cabaret diva Dee Dee looks back at 30 years of show biz, and affairs with stars Mick Jagger, Warren Beatty and – secretly, of course – John F. Kennedy, in her “first-ever Israeli performance” of rock pop standards, with current paramour, Hans. Tonight, Amit
 Tur and Adam Peri host real-life
 Israeli rock diva, Hadara Areddy-Levin in their English-speaking show. At 10:30 p.m., Tmuna Theater, Rehov Soncino 8,
 (03) 562-9462, NIS 55.

Friday

FUN

JERUSALEM

Call 'em
 The Emerald traditional Irish band performs, followed by square dancing, as part of the school fair – open to the public. At 4 p.m., Adam School, Rehov Emek Harefa'im Street,

Saturday

MUSIC

JERUSALEM

Lyric ethnic
 The Abidin Ensemble's show marks