

.m., info.: over charge.
and his band
greats as Bob
endrix com-
ts from Peter-
Red Alert.
pringer Audiinfo. and 3985, or Web
il, NIS 85 /

p.m. (see new comic a'acov
n Theater
info. and
or Web site,
eatre.co.il.

beral/Tradi-
Judaism" –
. Samuel Heil-
preshet Avra-
n 22, 8 p.m., uggested con-
dvance regis-

I Healing
shanna Har-
bother with
"Natural Hor-
"); "Lighten
with Herbal
a.m.); "Natur-30 a.m.);
0 p.m.); "Cra-
y" (1:30 a.m.);
of the Future"
notherapy:
ll the Flow-Eating to the Diet of p.m.); Dinner
"Healing 30 p.m.);
Issue of our

MUSIC
Concerticho – Rina Rozenman (piano), Lina Guberman (violin), and Nahum Regev (cello) play works by Dvorak and Mozart. •Ticho House, Harav Kook 9, 11 a.m., 053-265-915, NIS 35/30/20.

Judi Dench and Jim Broadbent.
Professional staff from Melabev will be on hand at its conclusion to respond to questions from the audience. •Cinemath-eque, 10:30 a.m., reservations and info.: 655-5826 / 642-2218, NIS 100 suggested contribution.

COMING HOME

In Habayta, New York singer/songwriter, dancer, and actress Adina Feldman performs an evening of Broadway numbers, Hebrew tunes, as well as her own original Hebrew and English songs, reflecting upon her two homes, Israel and America.

June 19, Bible Lands Museum, 9 p.m. (museum opens 8:30 p.m.), info.: 561-1066, or Web site, www.blmj.org.